Reference Document for Shareholders Meeting

Proposals and Reference Matters:

First Proposal: Appropriation of Surplus

The Company is committed to meeting the expectations of shareholders by increasing the Group's corporate value as a whole through improvement of profitability and capital efficiency on the premise of securing soundness, and by providing continuous returns to shareholders commensurate with the Company's performance.

In view of the above, it is the Company's policy to secure consistently stable dividends per share and to provide returns to shareholders equivalent to 40% to 60% of its Group Adjusted Profit by shareholder dividends and repurchase of our own shares.

In accordance with the above policy, the Company proposes the appropriation of surplus for the fiscal year under review as follows:

Matters concerning the year-end dividend:

1. Matters regarding distribution of dividends to shareholders and the total amount thereof:

75 yen per share of common stock of the Company

Total: 42,678,548,625 yen

As a result, the annual dividend for the fiscal year under review totals 150 yen per share, including the interim dividend.

2. Effective date of dividend:

June 26, 2020

BUSINESS REPORT FOR THE 12TH TERM (FY2019)

(from April 1, 2019 to March 31, 2020)

1. Matters Concerning the Current Status of the Insurance Holding Company(1) Progress and results of business of the corporate group

During the fiscal year under review, the global economy remained on a path of gradual recovery due to factors such as the strong U.S. economy. In addition, the Japanese economy also recovered gradually mainly in internal demand due to factors such as the improvement of employment and income conditions. However, the global and Japanese economies both drastically slowed down due to the impact of the novel coronavirus disease (COVID-19) that has been spreading globally since the beginning of this year.

The MS&AD Insurance Group (“the Group”) is aiming to “become a world-leading insurance and financial services group” and “create resilient (*1) systems that can swiftly respond to changes in the environment” based on the Medium-Term Management Plan “Vision 2021” that started from FY2018. For achieving these goals, the Group has been making efforts for the three key strategies of “Pursue Group’s comprehensive strengths,” “Promote digitalization,” and “Reform portfolio.”

Pursue Group’s comprehensive strengths	We made efforts to realize higher efficiency and quality by promoting standardization and sharing such as standardizing products and administration of automobile insurance, fire insurance, accident insurance and casualty insurance, and reviewing the status of reinsurance on a Group basis to strengthen competitiveness by utilizing group synergies.
Promote digitalization	For the purpose of enhancing the value of customers’ actual experiences and improving the business productivity of the Group, we promoted initiatives that link with the overall reform of business that utilizes digital technologies. In addition to developing and introducing “MS1 Brain,” a new system that supports the provision of optimal products and services through agents at MSI, we also provided claims services that utilize telematics technology (*2) at ADI. Furthermore, we made investments in startups through a corporate venture capital (CVC) established in Silicon Valley, the US.
Reform portfolio	We made efforts to reform our business portfolio with diversified geography and businesses by focusing on strengthening and expanding the overseas business and domestic life insurance business in addition to expanding sales of casualty insurance in the domestic non-life insurance business, and also reformed our risk portfolio by reducing strategic equity holdings and strengthening risk management for natural disaster risks on a Group basis.

In the fiscal year under review, although multiple natural disasters, such as typhoons, occurred, we responded flexibly in not only the claims services division, but other divisions as well, such as deploying more personnel at call centers and disaster countermeasures offices. Furthermore, we made efforts to pay insurance claims promptly to customers by promoting the ability to receive claims using the internet, verify the status of damages using drones (unmanned Aircraft), investigate damages using video chat, and utilize various digital technologies such as the automation of claims service work utilizing RPA (*3).

Also, we set diversity and inclusion as the basis for our human resource strategy and arranged an environment where diversified human resources can continue to play active roles respecting different values regardless of nationality, gender, age, and experience.

Issues to be Addressed

In regard to the future of the global economy, including Japan, there are fears surrounding the global spread of the novel coronavirus disease (COVID-19) and further downturn owing to limits on people's movement and disruption to logistics networks caused by the impact of the disease, and it is hoped that effective economic countermeasures will be implemented by national governments.

In the insurance industry, companies need to maintain their functions as a part of the social infrastructure, including contractual procedures and the payment of claims under the spread of COVID-19, while also focusing on areas such as the development and provision of products and services contributing to preventing and reducing natural disasters, which are becoming increasingly frequent and large in scale, further enhancing risk management, and contributing to the realization of a sustainable society.

In facing the emergency situation of the global spread of COVID-19, the Group invoked its BCP (business continuity plan), and is working as one to continue operations in order to ensure that the payment of insurance to our customer is not delayed, with the highest priority being placed on suppressing the spread of the disease within and outside of the group companies and ensuring the safety of our customers and employees.

In Stage 2 (FY2020 and FY2021) of the Medium-Term Management Plan "Vision 2021," which starts in FY2020, we aim to evolve the initiatives implemented in Stage 1 (FY2018 and FY2019), and employ the Group's resources to the maximum extent possible to achieve sustainable growth and enhance corporate value, as we look to achieve "business of a substantial scale and quality to be recognized as a world-leading insurance and financial services group" and "building of systems ahead of changes in social structures that can respond to these such changes in a timely manner." Then, we will leverage the Group's comprehensive strengths, utilizing diversity, and respond flexibly to changes in the environment, while at the same time enhancing quality and productivity by reviewing the division of roles and strengthening cooperation between Group companies. In addition, we will endeavor to promote digitalization, enhance operational efficiency, and streamline our operations, while also enhancing the value of customers' experiences.

Furthermore, in order to contribute to solving social issues and realizing a "resilient and sustainable society" by 2030, we will continue focusing on creating shared value (CSV) with society, using the SDGs (sustainable development goals) as our guide.

We look forward to the continued support and encouragement of our shareholders.

We also reported to the Board of Directors on the state of creation and implementation of the Corporate Culture among the Group companies.

We institute the Group Basic Policies, require each directly invested company to obtain the approval of and report to the Holding Company regarding compliance with the Group Basic Policies and decisions on important matters, based on business management agreements that we have entered into with each company. With regard to overseas subsidiaries, we have consolidated the examination function for the status of management and control systems and the support function for compliance systems at the overseas offices of Mitsui Sumitomo Insurance Co., Ltd. and Aioi Nissay Dowa Insurance Co., Ltd. within the Holding Company and we are taking steps to promote monitoring of management systems and compliance.

2. System to Assure the Efficient Execution of Duties (System to Assure the Efficient Execution of Duties by Directors of the Holding Company and Its Subsidiaries)

In order to strengthen monitoring and oversight functions from the perspective of external human assets, which is independent from management, and to ensure highly transparent management, five (5) of the twelve (12) Directors (two of them are female) are Outside Directors making more than one-third of Directors composed of Outside Directors. For Outside Directors, each staff in charge gives advance explanations of the materials for discussion at the Board of Directors’ meeting.

The medium-term management plan sets management numerical target for each business domain, allocates capital based on the Risk Appetite Statements to the operating companies, and reports monthly performance at the Group Management Committee to verify the status of progress with respect to the income and expenditure plans. We will continue aiming to ensure soundness, increase return on risk, and improve capital efficiency based on the ERM cycle.

3. Group Legal Compliance System (System to Assure That Execution of Duties by Directors and Employees of the Holding Company and Its Subsidiaries Complies with Applicable Laws and the Articles of Incorporation)

In order to conduct business activities based on high ethical standards through awareness of compliance, and compliance with laws and regulations, we conduct compliance training, conduct inspections to detect inappropriate acts at an early stage, and implement various measures to prevent their recurrence. The Company has established a Quality Improvement and Compliance Committee to promote business operations that put the Group’s customer first, ensure compliance, and establish corporate ethics. The committee meets quarterly in principle to monitor and discuss issues related to quality improvement and compliance systems, etc. for the overall Group and each company, and reports the results of its discussions, including measures to address recognized issues, to the Board of Directors.

The Group has established the Speak Up system (whistleblowing system) to provide internal and external reporting desks as well as a channel for reporting to the Audit & Supervisory Board Members, thereby establishing a system that enables reports by officers and employees at the Holding Company and Group companies. Furthermore, in April 2019, the Group reformed the rules for the operation of the Speak Up System, and strengthened management of the system by newly establishing an exclusive organization that has jurisdiction of matters pertaining to the Speak Up System with the aim of strengthening whistle-blower protection (prohibition of disadvantageous treatment, etc.) and confidentiality. The management status of the Speak Up System is reported to the Board of Directors once a year.

4. Enterprise Risk Management System (Provisions for Managing Risk of Loss of the Holding Company and Its Subsidiaries, and Other Systems)

To enable the Company to manage risk in a way that integrates various types of risk, the Group has established organizations and systems such as the Risk Management Committee, integrated risk management departments such as the Investment Risk Management Section, and “Regulations for Capital and Integrated Risk Management.” The Board of Directors of the Company verifies the status of the Group’s risks and the status of risk management initiatives by regularly receiving reports from the officer in charge of risk management on the results of discussions by the Risk Management Committee including confirmation results of the quantitative verification of integrated risk management, the status of Group critical risk management action plans, and the status of Group risks such as the status of monitoring indicators for Group critical risk.

Regarding Group critical risks, the Group verifies the status of the progress of Group critical risk management action plans, the effectiveness of the initiatives and the status of monitoring indicators every half year based on the “Management Standards for Group Critical Risks, Group Principal Risks and Group Emerging Risks,” and the officer in charge of risk management reports these to the Board of Directors in consideration of the results of consultation and coordination by the Risk Management Committee.

5. System for Assuring the Reliability of Financial Reporting

The Risk Management Committee reports, and exchanges opinions on confirmation of the validity of disclosure information on regular disclosure and timely disclosure. When the Annual Securities Reports and Quarterly Earnings Reports are being prepared, the Risk Management Committee verifies the status of controls over information disclosure for each department and company based on the internal control confirmation documents received from departments providing basic information, departments preparing disclosure documents, and directly invested consolidated subsidiaries, and submits a report to the Board of Directors each quarter confirming no serious deficiencies exist in the information disclosure control system.

6. System for Assuring the Effectiveness of Internal Audit

The Holding Company and Group domestic insurance companies formulate risk-based internal audit plans and conduct effective and efficient internal audits of all Group business activities. The Holding Company has established a system to verify the internal auditing and internal management systems of Group’s domestic insurance companies through monitoring and other means and to promote its improvements. The status of each company is reported to the Board of Directors once a year.

7. System for Management of Information (System for Management and Retention of Information Pertaining to Execution of Duties by Directors, etc.)

The Company confirms that information such as the minutes of annual shareholders meetings, meetings of the Board of Directors, the Group Management Committee, etc. and documentation relating to the Board of Directors is appropriately managed.

8. System for Assuring the Effectiveness of Auditing by Audit & Supervisory Board

2. Application of equity method

- (1) Number of associates accounted for under the equity method
13 companies

Major associates accounted for under the equity method are as follows:

Sumitomo Mitsui DS Asset Management Company, Limited
ReAssure Group Plc

Changes in scope of application of equity method

However, Japan Earthquake Re is not included in the affiliates since the Company does not have the ability to exercise significant influence over operating and financial decisions of Japan Earthquake Re in view of its public nature.

3. Fiscal year of consolidated subsidiaries

The fiscal year end for 80 overseas consolidated subsidiaries is December 31, which is different from that of the Company. The Company uses the financial statements as of their latest fiscal year end for consolidation purposes since the intervening period does not exceed three months from the Company’s fiscal year end.

The Company makes adjustments to incorporate significant transactions occurred during the intervening period that materially affect the consolidated financial statements.

4. Accounting policies

- (1) Valuation policies and methods of securities (including those categorized into “cash, deposits and savings” and “monetary claims bought” as set forth in the Enforcement Regulations of the Japanese Insurance Business Act)
 - (i) Trading securities are valued at their year-end market prices. Cost of sales is calculated using the moving average method. For some overseas consolidated subsidiaries, cost of sales is calculated using the first-in first-out method.
 - (ii) Held-to-maturity securities are valued at amortized cost.
 - (iii) Investments in unconsolidated subsidiaries and associates that are not accounted for under the equity method are valued at cost determined by the moving average method.
 - (iv) Debt securities and money trusts earmarked for underwriting reserves are valued at amortized cost determined by the moving average method in accordance with Industry Audit Committee Report No. 21 “Temporary Treatment of Accounting and Auditing Concerning Debt Securities Earmarked for Underwriting Reserve in the Insurance Industry” (issued by the Japanese Institute of Certified Public Accountants on November 16, 2000).

A summary of the risk management policy for debt securities and money trusts earmarked for underwriting reserves is as follows:

In order to manage risks of variability in interest rates related to assets and liabilities effectively, MSAL establishes subgroups of “individual insurance” that meet certain criteria for each type of insurance and investment policy and applies the investment policy and cash allocation policy reflecting their characteristics. In addition, MSAL periodically assesses whether the durations of the debt securities earmarked for underwriting reserves fall within a certain range from those of the underwriting reserves in each subgroup.

In order to manage risks of variability in interest rates related to assets and liabilities effectively, MSPL establishes subgroups of “individual insurance and individual annuities” that meet certain criteria for each currency and applies the investment policy and cash allocation policy reflecting their characteristics. In addition, MSPL periodically assesses whether the durations of the debt securities earmarked for underwriting reserves fall within a certain range from those of the underwriting reserves in each subgroup.

- (v) Available-for-sale securities (except for those without practically determinable fair value) are valued by market value method based on their year-end market price, etc.

Net unrealized gains and losses are reported as a separate line item of net assets. For foreign currency bonds held by certain consolidated subsidiaries, changes in fair values due to fluctuations in foreign exchange rates are reported in net unrealized gains and losses in net assets, while remaining changes are reported as foreign exchange gains and losses in the consolidated financial statement of income. Cost of sales is calculated by the moving average method.

- (vi) Available-for-sale securities without practically determinable fair value are valued at cost using the moving average method.

- (vii) Money trusts which are specifically managed for the Company and its domestic consolidated subsidiaries for trading purposes are valued at their year-end market prices.

Money trusts which are specifically managed for the Company and its domestic consolidated subsidiaries, other than money trusts held for trading purposes, money trusts held to maturity and money trusts earmarked for underwriting reserves, are valued on the same basis as available-for-sale securities.

- (2) Valuation policies and methods of derivative financial instruments

Derivative financial instruments are valued at fair value.

- (3) Depreciation methods of significant depreciable assets

- (i) Depreciation of tangible fixed assets is computed using the straight-line method.
- (ii) Amortization of intangible fixed assets are computed using the straight-line method. Capitalized software for internal use is amortized by the straight-line method over its estimated useful life.

- (4) Accounting policies for significant reserves

- (i) Bad debt reserve

For domestic consolidated insurance subsidiaries, bad debt reserve is established under the internal standards for self-assessment of assets and the policy for write-off and provision.

Bad debt reserve for loans to debtors who are legally deemed to be insolvent due to bankruptcy or special liquidation, or whose notes are under suspension at clearing houses, and loans to debtors who are deemed to be substantially insolvent is provided based on the outstanding balance remaining after deducting the resale value of collateral and the amount collectible through guarantees.

Bad debt reserve for loans to debtors who are likely to become insolvent in the future is provided based on the outstanding balance remaining after deducting the resale value of collateral, the amount collectible through guarantees and the amount expected to be repaid by the debtors considering their overall ability to pay.

For loans other than those described above, bad debt reserve is calculated by multiplying the outstanding balances by the historical bad debt ratios.

Bad debt reserve for all loans and receivables is provided based on the assessment under the internal standards for self-assessment of assets. The assessment is performed by departments which are responsible for the respective assets and the results are reviewed by the independent internal audit departments.

For other domestic consolidated subsidiaries, bad debt reserve is established under their internal standards for self-assessment of assets and policies for write-off and provision similar to those of the domestic consolidated insurance subsidiaries.

For overseas consolidated subsidiaries, bad debt reserve is established based on the assessment of collectability of individual receivables.

(ii) Reserve for retirement benefits for officers

Reserve for retirement benefits that covers the cost for services rendered by officers and operating officers of MSI and MSAL, the consolidated subsidiaries, up to the year ended March 31, 2005, the date on which the retirement benefit plans for officers were terminated, is established based on the estimated amounts to be paid at the year-end to provide for future retirement benefits (including pension) for officers and operating officers of MSI and MSAL.

(iii) Accrued bonuses for employees

Accrued bonuses for employees are determined based on the estimated amounts to be paid at the fiscal year-end to provide for future bonuses for employees and operating officers.

(iv) Reserve for loss on sales of stock of affiliate

Reserve for loss on sales of stock of affiliate is provided for possible losses arising from sales of affiliates' stocks with listed stocks provided as consideration.

(v) Reserve for price fluctuation

For the domestic consolidated insurance subsidiaries, the reserve for price fluctuation is recognized under Article 115 of the Insurance Business Act to provide for possible losses arising from price fluctuation of investment assets such as equity securities.

(5) Accounting for retirement benefits

(i) Attribution method of retirement benefits over the service period

In computing retirement benefit obligations, the estimated retirement benefits are attributed to the periods up to the current year using the plan's benefit formula.

(ii) Accounting for actuarial gains and losses

Actuarial gains and losses are amortized, commencing from the following year, using the straight-line method over a certain number of years (primarily 10 to 11 years) that do not exceed the expected average remaining service period of employees at the time of occurrence.

(6) Translation of foreign currency assets and liabilities

Foreign currency monetary assets and liabilities of the Company are translated into Japanese yen using the spot exchange rate prevailing at the fiscal year-end. The foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the translation are recognized in earnings. Foreign currency assets and liabilities of overseas consolidated subsidiaries are translated into Japanese yen using the spot exchange rate prevailing at their respective year-ends, while shareholders' equity is translated at the historical rates. Income and expenses of overseas consolidated subsidiaries are translated into Japanese yen using the average exchange rate for the year. Differences arising from such translations are included in Foreign currency translation adjustments and Non-controlling interests in Net Assets.

(7) Accounting for consumption taxes

Consumption taxes received or paid by the Company and its major domestic consolidated subsidiaries are not included in income or expenses, except for those relating to Loss adjustment expenses and Operating expenses and general and administrative expenses incurred by the domestic consolidated non-life insurance subsidiaries. Consumption taxes excluded from income and expenses are recorded at the net amount on the balance sheet.

Non-deductible consumption taxes are recognized as expenses for the period, except for those relating to the purchase of depreciable fixed assets which are not charged to expenses but deferred as Other assets and amortized over a period of five years on a straight-line basis.

(8) Hedge accounting

Under accounting principles generally accepted in Japan ("Japanese GAAP"), several methodologies are allowed for hedge accounting. Two fundamental approaches are the deferred hedge method and the fair value hedge method. Under the deferred hedge method, gains and losses on changes in fair value of derivative financial instruments are deferred and accounted for as a separate line item of net assets. Under the fair value hedge method, which is allowed only with respect to available-for-sale securities being the hedged items, gains and losses on changes in fair value of the hedging instruments are recognized in earnings together with the corresponding gains and losses of the hedged items attributable to the risks being hedged.

In addition, for certain derivative financial instruments, alternative treatments are permitted under Japanese GAAP. Assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies and hedged by foreign exchange forward contracts or currency swaps can be accounted for by the allocation method. Under this method, the foreign exchange forward contracts and currency swaps used as hedging instruments are not measured at fair value since gains and losses on the derivatives are assumed to be offset with changes in fair value of the corresponding hedged items, and hedged items are translated at the foreign exchange rates that are stipulated in the foreign exchange forward contracts or currency swaps (hedging instruments). Interest rate swaps that qualify for hedge accounting and meet specific matching criteria are not remeasured at fair value, but the differentials paid or received under the swap agreements are recognized and included in interest expense or income of the hedged items (the exceptional method).

For certain domestic consolidated insurance subsidiaries, gains and losses on equity forward contracts used for hedging risks of variability in the fair value of investments in equity securities are accounted for under the fair value hedge method. Gains and losses on currency swap contracts used for hedging risks of variability in foreign exchange rates on foreign currency assets are accounted for under the deferred hedge method and certain foreign exchange forward contracts used for hedging risks of variability in foreign exchange rates on foreign currency assets are accounted for under the deferred hedge method, the fair value hedge method or the allocation method. Gains and losses on currency swap contracts used for hedging risks of variability in foreign exchange rates on foreign currency bonds issued by MSI are accounted for under the allocation method.

Gains and losses on interest rate swap contracts used for hedging risks of variability in interest rates of loans, bonds and borrowings are accounted for under the deferred hedge method or the exceptional method when they meet certain criteria.

Gains and losses on interest rate and currency swap contracts used for hedging risks of variability in foreign exchange rates and interest rates on foreign currency borrowings are accounted for under the integrated method when they meet certain criteria. The integrated method is to hedge foreign currency risks and interest rate risks using the allocation method and the exceptional method, respectively.

Hedge effectiveness is assessed quarterly by comparing cumulative fluctuations in fair value or cash flows of the hedged items and hedging instruments for the periods from the respective start dates of the hedges to the assessment dates. When the hedged items and the hedging instruments are highly and clearly interrelated, when the interest rate swap transactions meet the criteria for application of the exceptional method, or when the interest rate and currency swap contracts meet the criteria for application of the integrated method, hedge effectiveness is not assessed.

5. Goodwill

Goodwill is amortized over an effective period within 20 years on a straight-line basis. Insignificant amounts of goodwill are charged to expenses as incurred.

10. Information on financial instruments

(1) Qualitative information on financial instruments

(i) Policy on financial instruments

The Group applies Asset and Liability Management (ALM) policies to maintain stability of investment returns, safety of assets and sufficient liquidity under an appropriate risk management framework to attain the sustainable growth of the net asset value. In addition, the Group is exposed to investment risks such as market risks and credit risks, and manages those risks in accordance with the risk management policies of the Group and each group company.

The Group's cash inflows, which mainly arise from insurance operations and investment activities, are affected by changes in external environment such as occurrences of natural disasters and changes in financial market conditions. In order to enhance efficiency of funds operations and strengthen financial capacity under such changing conditions, the Group undertakes to raise funds through issuance of long-term or short-term corporate bonds or other financing methods as the needs arise.

(ii) Details of financial instruments and associated risks

The Group's financial assets mainly consist of securities including domestic bonds, domestic stocks and foreign securities, loans and other financial instruments. Risks pertaining to investments include market risks, credit risks, market liquidity risks and other risks. Market risks arise from fluctuations in interest rates, stock prices, foreign exchange rates and other market indicators. Credit risks arise from deterioration in the financial condition of security issuers and counterparties of loans. Market liquidity risks represent the risks that investment assets are forced to be sold at extremely unfavorable prices under turmoil in the financial markets.

The Group utilizes derivative transactions represented by interest rate swaps, interest rate options, bond future contracts, equity index options, equity index future contracts, equity forward contracts, foreign exchange forward contracts, currency swaps, currency options, and interest rate and currency swaps for the purpose of hedging risks such as fluctuations in interest rates, stock prices and foreign exchange rates. In addition, the Group utilizes credit derivatives, weather derivatives, and natural catastrophe derivatives in order to generate investment returns with consideration given to the associated risks.

For details of derivative transactions to which hedge accounting is applied, please refer to "Significant Accounting Policies, 4. Accounting policies, (8) Hedge accounting."

Derivative transactions involve risks associated with fluctuations in fair value of derivative financial instruments, risks of nonperformance resulting from insolvency of counterparties and market liquidity risks. Derivative transactions utilized by the Group are also exposed to these risks. However, market risks associated with derivative transactions utilized for the purpose of hedging are mitigated, as changes in the fair value of hedged items and hedging instruments offset each other. In order to mitigate credit risks arising from the nonperformance of counterparties, most of the Group's derivative transactions are executed only with selected counterparties of high credit quality and diversified amongst various counterparties. Furthermore, under Credit Support Annex (CSA) the Group obtains collateral from counterparties.

(iii) Risk management structure relating to financial instruments

The Board of Directors has established the basic policy for risk management and internal policies for asset management risks, which stipulate the definition of risks and management method, and the Group manages risks in accordance with the basic policy and internal policies. At major domestic consolidated insurance subsidiaries, the trading department is segregated from the back-office and risk management departments and maintains a structure which enables to exercise organizational checks and balances on a daily basis. The risk management department assesses, analyzes and manages risks related to financial instruments by quantifying market and credit risks using the VaR (Value-at-Risk) and managing risk limit based on asset and liability position, and regularly reports the results to the Board of Directors.

(a) Market risk management

The Group maintains and operates a risk management structure taking into account the characteristics of each financial instrument in accordance with its internal policies for market risk management. In addition to monitoring of risk amount by quantifying risks using the VaR method as described above, major domestic consolidated insurance subsidiaries manage market risks through assessment of potential risks that cannot be identified using the VaR method, analysis of sensitivity of existing assets to changes in interest rates, stock prices and foreign exchange rates and analysis of concentration and weakness of portfolio.

(b) Credit risk management

The Group maintains and operates a risk management structure in accordance with its internal policies for credit risk management. For securities and derivative transactions at major domestic consolidated insurance subsidiaries, the trading and risk management departments manage credit risks of security issuers and derivative counterparties by regularly monitoring the credit information and fair values associated with the investment assets. For loans at MSI, ADI and MSPL, the trading and risk management departments maintain a credit risk management structure through credit screening, setting internal credit ratings and credit limits, managing credit information, requiring collaterals and guarantees where necessary, and resolving delinquent loans on an individual loan basis.

(c) Liquidity risk management

The Group maintains and operates a funding and market liquidity risk management structure in accordance with internal policies for liquidity risk management. The Group's treasury management classifies funding needs into "ordinary" and "emergency" depending on the urgency level, and oversees operation and management for the liquidity in each level, which gives the foremost consideration to the liquidity risk. The treasury management also ensures diversification of fundraising activities to secure and maintain liquidity in various environments. The Group manages funding liquidity risks by holding a sufficient amount of cash, savings and deposits, and highly liquid securities such as government bonds, and regularly monitoring their aggregate amounts in case of unexpected events like catastrophes and the deterioration of funding liquidity arising from turmoil in the financial markets.

(iv) Supplementary explanation of matters relating to the fair value of financial instruments and other information

(Note 1) Determination of fair value of financial instruments

Assets

(i) Cash, deposits and savings

With regard to deposits and savings, the fair value is measured at the present value of the estimated future cash flows discounted at interest rates applicable to the same type of new deposits and savings based on duration. With regard to deposits and savings without fixed maturities, and short-term deposits and savings, the book value is deemed as the fair value due to their demand feature or short term duration.

(ii) Receivables under resale agreements

With regard to Receivables under resale agreements, the book value approximates the fair value since they are scheduled to be settled in a short period of time.

(iii) Monetary claims bought

With regard to commercial papers (CP), the price quoted by counterparty financial institutions is deemed as the fair value. With regard to certain CP, the book value approximates the fair value since they are scheduled to be settled in a short period of time. With regard to Monetary claims bought other than CP, the price quoted by counterparty financial institutions is deemed as the fair value.

(iv) Money trusts

With regard to Money trusts, the price quoted by trustees is deemed as the fair value.

(v) Investments in securities

The fair value of equity securities is determined based on the quoted market price and the fair value of bonds is determined based on the price quoted by exchanges, independent price vendors or counterparty financial institutions.

(vi) Loans

With regard to floating rate loans, the book value approximates the fair value contingent on no significant changes in the credit conditions of the debtor, because the floating rates on the loans reflect market interest rates. With regard to fixed rate loans, for loans sorted by type, term and credit rating, the fair value is based on the present value of the estimated future cash flows discounted at market interest rates, such as yields on government bonds, plus a credit spread. The fair value of certain personal loans is determined at the net present value of the estimated future cash flows discounted at interest rates applicable to the same type of new loans.

With regard to policy loans, which do not have contractual maturities, as the loan amount is limited to the surrender value, the carrying amount approximates the fair value, considering their estimated repayment periods and interest rates.

With regard to loans to debtors that are legally or substantially bankrupt and loans to doubtful debtors, the carrying amount less bad debt reserve is deemed as the fair value, because the bad debt reserve is determined based on the present value of the estimated future cash flows or the value of the collateral and the amount collectible through guarantees.

Liabilities

Bonds issued

With regard to Bonds issued, the fair value is determined based on “Reference Statistical Prices for OTC Bond Transactions” published by the Japan Securities Dealers Association or prices quoted by independent price vendors or counterparty financial institutions.

Derivative transactions

With regard to derivative transactions, the fair value is determined based on published forward exchange rates, closing prices at major exchanges, or prices quoted by counterparty financial institutions.

(Note 2) The carrying amounts of financial instruments in which the fair values are not practically determinable, which are not included in “(v) Investments in securities” above, are as follows:

	(Yen in millions)
	March 31, 2020
Unlisted stocks and other assets invested in non-listed subsidiaries and associates	288,728
Other unlisted stocks	90,625
Unlisted investment trusts	72,750
Partnership investments comprised of unlisted stocks	38,338
Total	490,442

The fair value of the financial instruments in the above table is not disclosed because their fair value is not practically determinable due to lack of marketability and difficulties in reasonably estimating future cash flows.

11. Certain consolidated subsidiaries own investment properties in Tokyo and other areas. The carrying amounts, changes in carrying amounts and fair value of the investment properties are as follows:

(Yen in millions)
March 31, 2020
Carrying amount	74,981
Fair value	138,674

(Notes)

- (1) Carrying amount represents the acquisition cost less accumulated depreciation.
- (2) Fair value is primarily determined based on the appraisal values provided by qualified external appraisers. With respect to the properties with no substantial changes in their appraisal values or indices that were considered to appropriately reflect market prices since most recent appraisal dates, the fair value is determined based on these appraisal values or the values adjusted by the relevant indices.

—	Goodwill and other intangible fixed assets	Europe primary insurance business operated by MS Amlin plc's subsidiaries	12,720	Other tangible fixed assets Software Goodwill Other intangible fixed assets	136 862 2,202 9,517

Fixed assets used for the insurance business operations are grouped as a single asset group by each company. Other assets such as investment properties, idle assets and assets for sale are grouped on an individual basis.

As the investment properties, idle real estate and real estate for sale in the above table are to be sold or determined to be demolished, the aggregate difference between the carrying amounts of the assets and recoverable amounts was recognized as impairment losses on fixed assets under extraordinary losses.

The recoverable amounts of the assets to be sold represent their net sales value or value in use. The value in use are evaluated as zero.

For other intangible fixed assets, the amount of insurance business related software held by overseas consolidated subsidiaries which is not expected to be used in the future is recognized as impairment losses.

Moreover, the non-life insurance business operated by MS Amlin plc through its subsidiaries as one asset group has been transitioned to independent asset groups to the Lloyd's business, Europe primary insurance business, and reinsurance business under MS Amlin plc due to the termination of the regional holding company framework at Mitsui Sumitomo Insurance Co., Ltd. and its transition to a framework that directly manages international business subsidiaries. Since the profitability of the Lloyd's business and Europe primary insurance business fell short of the original business plan made at the time of acquisition, the aggregate difference between the carrying amounts and recoverable amounts of goodwill and other intangible fixed assets were recognized as impairment losses on fixed assets under extraordinary losses. The recoverable amounts of land and lease assets represent their net sales value and the recoverable amounts of others are determined as zero. The net sales value is determined based on the appraisal value.

NON-CONSOLIDATED EXPLANATORY NOTES

(Notes on Matters Concerning Important Accounting Policies)

1. Valuation policies and methods of valuation of assets

- (i) Valuation of stock of subsidiaries and affiliates are valued at cost determined by the moving average method.
- (ii) Available-for-sale securities (except for those without practically determinable fair value) are valued at their year-end market prices. Net unrealized gains and losses are reported as a separate line item of net assets.
Cost of sales is calculated by the moving average method.
- (iii) Available-for-sale securities without practically determinable fair value are valued at cost using the moving average method.
- (iv) Derivatives are valued using the market value method.

2. Depreciation methods of tangible fixed assets

Depreciation of tangible fixed assets is computed using the straight-line method.
Useful lives for major tangible fixed assets are as follows:

Building:	7 to 38 years
Apparatus and Fixture:	2 to 15 years

3. Depreciation methods of intangible fixed assets

Depreciation of capitalized software for internal use is computed using the straight-line method based on the estimated useful life (5 years).

4. Accounting policies for reserves

- (i) Accrued bonuses for employees and operating officers are determined based on the estimated amounts to be paid at the year-end to provide for future bonuses for employees and operating officers.
- (ii) The amount deemed necessary is recorded in order to prepare for possible future losses associated with the sale of shares of subsidiaries and associates, which use listed stocks as consideration.

5. Hedge accounting

Foreign exchange forward contracts used for hedging risks of variability in foreign exchange rates on foreign currency assets are accounted for under the deferred hedge method or the allocation method. Since it is clear that there is a high correlation between the hedged item and the hedging instrument, judgement regarding the hedge effectiveness is omitted.

6. Accounting for consumption taxes

Consumption taxes are recorded at the net amount on the balance sheet.

(Notes on Balance Sheet)

- 1. Amount of accumulated depreciation of tangible fixed assets: 479 million yen
- 2. Amounts receivable from and payable to affiliates
